

What is Gay-Lussac's Law?

In 1802 Joseph Louis Gay-Lussac, a Frenchman, studied the relationship between pressure and temperature in gases.

He built on earlier research:

*Robert Boyle (1600s)
studied pressure and
volume in gases,*

*Jacques Charles (1787)
studied temperature and
volume in gases.*

